Pronunciation and French sounds/phonics:

Silent letters: Do you know that the last letter of a word is often silent, unless there is an 'e' on the end, in which case the sound is brought to life? An 'h' is silent too e.g. 'Halloween' (say it without the 'h'!)

Are you beginning to spot some sounds and sound more French? The 'in' sound (pronounced 'an') in 'cinq' o'r 'vingt'? The 'r' sound from the back of your throat? The 'n' blocked up nose sound?

Writing:

Can you copy words and phrases in French accurately? Can you write some single words accurately from memory? Have a go!

Speaking:

Can you ask and answer some questions from memory?
